

The Dream Begins Here

At Fort Caroline Middle School, our students' experiences begin in the classroom, but are limited only by students' imaginations.

The International Baccalaureate Middle Years Programme is based on holistic learning that emphasizes the connections among a variety of disciplines. Here, students are encouraged to inquire and reflect, expressing themselves as they interact in the areas of learning, community service, creativity, the environment, health and social issues.

Fort Caroline's curriculum is based on three fundamental concepts: International Mindedness, Communication, and Holistic Learning.

ACADEMICS: Fort Caroline educates students to think deeply, live honorably and engage in contemporary intellectual and social challenges.

TECHNOLOGY: Facilities include technology-enhanced classrooms, brand-new computer laboratories, Read 180 laboratories, computer-accessed safety nets and creative design systems.

DIVERSITY: A strong sense of community brings students together to enhance the social and cultural education of all. Students at Fort Caroline represent over 40 countries.

HIGHLY QUALIFIED TEACHERS: Fort Caroline's faculty includes teachers who are Master-trained in their fields and committed to engaging and inspiring students to academic excellence.

GUIDANCE: Counselors guide and structure each student's educational and vocational direction on a one-to-one basis.

COMMUNITY SUPPORT: Fort Caroline's Community Support Services remove barriers and create circles of support, helping students become independent and more engaged in daily life.

Expanding Students' Minds: The International Baccalaureate Programme at Fort Caroline Middle School

Designed to help students ages 11 to 14 develop the knowledge, attitude and skills they need to participate in a changing world, The International Baccalaureate Middle Years Programme is recognized throughout the world.

Fort Caroline Middle School is now a candidate school with the Middle Years Programme, and offers its students an approach to learning that goes beyond the scope of traditional school subjects. Students are inspired, encouraged, challenged and rewarded.
